

DRUGGISTS RESENT ACT OF LA FOLLETTE

Unwarranted Removal of E. B. Heimstreet from State Board of Pharmacy Severely Condemned.

A howl of dismay is heard over the land (which in this case means Wisconsin). A very political governor by name of LaFollette, or is it LaFollette, following time honored precedents, has asserted his right of meddling in matters beyond his comprehension, and a few inside facts seem to be necessary to enable the ordinary mortal to understand the workings of his excellency's gray matter, but not being in politics for bread and butter, we pharmacists of Wisconsin are in the dark entirely.

Mr. E. B. Heimstreet, of Janesville, the father of pharmacy in our state, has held the position of secretary for twenty years and to him is due, almost entirely, our excellent pharmacy system. Why, Mr. Heimstreet held that position before there was any pharmacy law in Minnesota. The records of the State Board of Wisconsin are more complete than any state in the United States and it's to such men as Mr. Heimstreet, of Wisconsin, and Mr. Webster, of Minnesota, that we owe our reputation for strict enforcement of pharmacy laws.

Everybody knows the slight compensation, the hard work, the sacrifice of time and business interests and the quarterly abuse of disappointed candidates the position of secretary entails, and if a man stands by such a post for twenty long years, he is not the man that's there for the money, nor for pleasure, nor for honor, he is there because his associates firmly believe that he is the only man for the place and to whose standard none of the aspirants for the position have been able to come.

Now if a man can stand these tests for twenty years he is too valuable a man to lose and our only hope is that his successor will be incompetent enough, not to make any innovation, but that he will be glad to run the course so plainly marked out by the master mind. Mr. Heimstreet's term does not expire till April 12th and that his successor is appointed and his name published two months ahead of that date is another "LaFollette."

According to the political heresy the appointment belonged to the southwestern part of the state, as it has always been understood that Milwaukee was entitled to one member and consequently two names from that city were presented to the most excellent governor: Wm. H. Barr, a very prominent pharmacist, and A. E. Melding, who, besides having two pharmacies in Milwaukee, is also Professor of Chemistry in the Milwaukee Medical College. Here, you would say, the governor had two good candidates, both well posted, either of whom would have been a credit to the board, if for some obscure reason Mr. Heimstreet had to be sacrificed. But no, Mr. Governor knew better. He had watched the pharmaceutical situation closely, in the large bustling metropolis Madison, he decided that the state association knew nothing about pharmacy. He had witnessed their annual meetings, with their races and contests of all kinds, he—oh, he knew, so he put his august seal under the appointment of Mr. Munzel. Now who is Mr. Munzel, he may be all right, in fact, he must be all right, when Mr. Heimstreet gave him his certificate, but that's not the question. The question is what has he done for pharmacy in Wisconsin? Can anybody tell? Can anybody guess why he is appointed—no, guess not, but when he is secretary we will stand by him, we have no quarrel with Mr. Munzel, but we have with Mr. LaFollette, who as they say, did it for political reasons, but if he did, he must have forgotten that Mr. Heimstreet acted as chairman of the republican committee of Janesville, when this Mr. LaFollette was nominated for governor and did good work too.

There's been talk about a so-called ring, but if that's so, there must be a pretty strong ring in Minnesota to keep Mr. Webster as secretary for so long. Of course there is always somebody who wants somebody else's job, who will talk about ring and string, etc., but what sensible person cares about a job hunter anyway. But if there's a ring in Minnesota and another in Wisconsin, I am for the ring. That kind of ring, every time which can manage to keep men, such as Heimstreet and Webster as leaders, I have passed the boards of several states, besides Wisconsin and Minnesota, so I rather think I know a little about the matter. But now, can nothing be done about this matter? Is really Mr. Heimstreet irrevocably out? You pharmacists in lower Wisconsin, can not you do anything to right this injustice? We here at the head of the lakes have no pull, no influence whatever, so if you have any strings, pull them and pull them hard, and if Mr. Heimstreet is really out, let us make it our business to see that his work is carried on as he has carried it on himself. Let us place him in a niche in our memory. Let us always remember his twenty hard long years of work for pharmacy in Wisconsin.—Northwestern Druggist, Minneapolis and St. Paul.

THE OLD MISSION AT SANTA BARBARA

Mrs. Louise F. Brand Visits the Famous Old Franciscan Monks' Monastery in California.

Santa Barbara, March 27.—Every one who goes to Santa Barbara visits the old mission which is especially interesting because it is the only mission in the state, I believe, still occupied as a home by the Franciscan monks, their rotherhood, who founded the missions here over a century ago. The mission stands at the end of a broad avenue bordered with pepper trees. It is on the outskirts of the city and has the mountains for a background for its white buildings. The long plain building is the home of the monks and along its entire front extends the famous corridor with its roof of many arches. Even the bellcord, which hangs down at the side of one of the doors, helps to carry one out of modern life into the atmosphere of the early days of California. A sharp pull on the rope, the jangle of a bell within, and a pleasant faced monk invites the visitor to enter the bare room and register while he disappears to summon a guide. We were shown through the mission by the guide who most often comes, a native of Germany who speaks quite brokenly. He and all the monks of the brotherhood wear the coarse brown hooded gown of the Franciscan order, knotted around the waist with a rope in which several knots were tied. Their bare feet are protected only by loose sandals. The guide is very accommodating as well as well informed and relates the history of the mission as he conducts his guests through it.

The mission or church was built entirely by the monks themselves the rocks being hewn out by hand. The building represents labor the difficulties of which are hard to appreciate in this age of labor saving machinery. The interior of the church is very long and narrow and is of unique value and interest because the original decoration has been preserved. The original paintings of the Stations of the Cross, brought over from Spain in the 18th century still hang on the walls and the original images, carved out of wood and painted, still inspire a worshipping people with reverence.

Beneath the floor of the church lie the remains of the original monks who founded the mission. Later the monks as well as the early Catholics of the parish were buried in the little cemetery at the side of the church. It is a very little cemetery but hundreds of bodies found their last resting place in this quiet retreat. They lie buried one above the other, several deep. Originally there were many monuments but they have been taken away with the exception of one or two over graves of very prominent people and shrubbery and flowers have taken their place. There are no mounds and one would never dream that the pretty little park with its winding paths is a silent city of the dead, unless told. In one corner of the yard is a vault in which the bodies of the monks are laid.

Leaving the cemetery we entered the church once more and ascended the narrow winding stairway to the quaint belfry with its four arched openings through which magnificent views of the city and surrounding country are gained. Two of these belfries rise from the front of the church, but we only visited the newer one in which hangs the big bell as well as a smaller one. From the belfry the visitor can look down into the garden which is reserved for the private use of the monks and into which no woman is permitted to enter. Only twice has the rule been broken, once in favor of the wife of President Harrison and once in honor of Princess Louise. The visit to the mission ends with an inspection of the rooms in which relics of early days are preserved. The prayer books and music beautifully printed by hand are especially interesting.

LOUISE F. BRAND

Concert by the Lawrence University Mandolin and Glee Club. The Lawrence university has been noted for the high grade of entertainments given by its Mandolin and Glee clubs. This season these two clubs have been united thus making the entertainments doubly instructive and pleasing. Mr. Brunover is considered one of the best mandolin players in the state, while the efforts of the Mandolin quintette calls forth encores after encore.

Mr. Delbert Lean as an impersonator has few equals while the vocal solos of Prof. Dodge and Mr. Brooks are always of exceptional merit. These clubs consisting of twenty artists will give a concert at Court St. M. E. Church, Friday evening of this week and those who are familiar with their work do not hesitate in saying it will be the best given in the city this season. Don't miss it. Admission 25c. and 15c.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

The production of "The Climbers" at the Myers Grand last night pleased a good audience. The play is intended as a sarcasm upon the follies and pretensions of what is known as "society." The prods given the people who consider themselves above the common run were vigorous and sharp. The mourning scene of the first act was unique as was also the Christmas eve scene in the second act. The attention to detail in the elaborate stage setting was a marvel of the theatrical art. The cast was made up mostly of matured and experienced actors and actresses and the presentation was smooth and logical. The handsome gowns of the women in the cast added to the attraction. It was an interesting event and thoroughly enjoyable presentation without a hitch or a flaw. There was no particular prominence of any member of the cast, they were all good, and it is hoped that they will be seen in Janesville again.

THE ELECTION

Lack of interest in city affairs, reflected in a very light vote yesterday. On the city ticket the only contest was between Mr. Tallman and Mr. Burpee for the office of city treasurer. Mr. Burpee was elected by a good majority, indicating that the city is satisfied with his services. The lines are never closely drawn in local affairs and Mr. Tallman failed to receive the full vote of his party, although he made a good run. Some of the aldermen are returned by such small majorities that they have no occasion to feel flattered over the endorsement. This is true of the Second and Fourth ward. The handwriting on the wall is not difficult to decipher.

In Milwaukee Mayor Rose succeeded himself, although a bitter fight was made against him. When the vote is analyzed it will be found that Mayor Anson's defeat was due to disloyalty on the part of the LaFollette wing of the party. The Free Press, while pretending to support him, devoted its energies to stabbing him in the back by abusing Mr. Pfister, the Sentinel, and recognized republican leaders. This disposition is characteristic of LaFolletteism. The rule or ruin policy is apparent in every campaign, and where the vote is close, as is the case in Milwaukee, ruin is very easily accomplished.

The election in Madison is significant and the Madison Journal, read out of the administration by the governor's own organ, has read itself out of the conservative element by refusing to support a republican candidate for mayor, who was elected by a handsome majority in spite of the paper's opposition. Dr. Wilder is a political orphan, while yet in his prime. If he will promise to be good and a little more discreet he may be adopted and saved to republicanism. The state campaign will be easily launched in the near future and the atmosphere will be full of politics for the balance of the season.

BANNER YEAR FOR INVENTIONS.

The inventive genius of Americans ran riot during 1901, and the records of the patent office show that more patents were granted during that year than in any previous twelve months. The total number of patents issued were 27,292 for designs, trademarks and registered labels and prints. More than 8,000 applications for patents were allowed, and will be issued as soon as the final fees have been paid; and more than 4,000 were forfeited through the failure to pay these final fees. The business of the bureau was in every sense, a record-breaker, and it stands as emphatic evidence of the inventive power of the American people.

Some of the details of the business that went to make up the astounding record will be interesting to the student of national characteristics. For the patenting of mechanical devices 43,973 applications were received, and for the securing of designs 2,361. Applications for the registration of trademarks numbered 2,410; for the registration of labels, 1,064; and for the registration of prints, 233. For the re-issuance of patents 115 demands were made. The patent office expended $1,217,385.52 during the year, and its receipts were $152,012.52 in excess of the expenditures. It now has to its credit in the Treasury vaults a fund amounting to $5,329,471.07. It is certainly a self-sustaining bureau of the Government.

Invention, judging from the records in the patent office, seems to have established its throne in the eastern section of the country. In proportion to population, more patents were issued to citizens of Connecticut than to those of any other state in the Union, one having been issued for every 1,198 of her citizens. Following Connecticut in order come the District of Columbia, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Rhode Island, Colorado and New York. In the Territory of Alaska, the ratio was only one patent to every 31,796 of her population. This is decisive testimony as to the ingenuity and the "Yankee" to whose energy and industry so much of the nation's prosperity is due.

Germany led the world in securing "foreign patents" in the United States last year. The number issued to her was 1,045. England came next, securing 983, and Canada third, with 276. The nations lowest in the record are Brazil, Java, Jersey, Japan, Jamaica, Algeria, Bermuda, Spain, Turkey, Peru, South Africa and San Salvador, each of which bore away only one specimen of the precious documents.—Financial Review.

RAILROAD PARTNERSHIP.

In the contest that is constantly going on between the people and large corporations, and especially between legislatures and railroads, the fact is too frequently overlooked that a community of interests exists that can not readily be divorced. Every city and every community is in a sense, a silent partner to every transportation company which invades its territory. The investment of the community or individual may not be in cash and it is not necessary that any transfer of stock appear in the transaction, but dependency for support and for service is mutual, and the relations are so close, that they can not be ignored.

The net work of railroads that covers the land today like a spider web, is the greatest promoter of values in existence. It has doubled and quadrupled the price of farming lands in the last half century, and yet the transformation has been so gradual, and the work so unobtrusive, that results are difficult to realize. Twenty years ago the Chicago & North-western stretched its line across the states of Minnesota and Dakota to the Missouri River. The country traversed was a desolate prairie, unfarmed, and unoccupied. The enterprise cost millions of money, and was inspired by faith in the future, of the best American type. For ten years the line was operated at a loss. People were encouraged to occupy the land and transportation was furnished at a nominal price. If failure resulted, as it did in many cases through lack of experience and inability to contend with drought, and adverse circumstances, free transportation was supplied to bring them back to civilization. Did the company abandon the enterprise? Not for a minute. It was there to stay. Feeders were thrown out in all directions. The wild country was subdued and conquered and today thousands of prosperous farms give evidence of prosperity and all because a railroad possessed the hardihood to move on and occupy the land.

What is true in this instance, has been repeated time and again. The silent partner is not called upon in the initial stages, but he becomes an active force in the era of development. The railroad brings the market to the farmers door, and makes the door-way possible to almost any environment. The benefits to the farmer are duplicated in manifold ways. In every town and city in the land. An industry locates or develops in a city, and the first question of importance is shipping facilities. Localities take on substantial growth in proportion to ability to reach out side markets. The cement post factory locates in Janesville, not because of a bonus, but because two live railroads contribute to the prosperity of the place. The railroad makes the factory possible, and the factory contributes its product to the care of the transportation company. Both are important factors, and the benefits derived are mutual. Indirectly every citizen shares in these benefits. The man who deals in land and houses enjoys a stimulated and advancing market. The man who has goods to sell adds to the number of customers. The man who sells his labor, finds an active demand for his services. Back of it all are the influence that contribute to development, and prominent among them is the much cursed railway corporation.

The Gazette has no sympathy and but little respect for men, either in public or private life, who devote their energies to fighting railroads. There may be cheap glory in it, and gallery applause, but it lacks the first elements of common sense or common decency. The railroads and the people, like any other partnership, should work together. Both are contributors to a common fund, and the cash dividend to the public, is much more reliable, than the profits to the transportation companies. If it were possible for the companies in any locality, to suspend business for a year, the loss would be appreciated. That this is not done is not the fault of the class of people who treat them as though they had no right to exist.

The Man Christmas from Denmark who has created such a sensation in Congress, by accusing our worthy representatives of bribery in connection with the purchase of the Danish West India Islands, recently purchased, will be excused if he never comes back. The old fashioned Christmas is welcomed once a year, but the Danish infringement is too much of a prevaricator, to be tolerated.

Senator McGillivray, with his famous Prince Albert, appears to be the whole thing up in Jackson Co., McGillivray and LaFollette clubs are springing up like mushrooms in the night, but nothing is said about Spooner. The Senator probably will make a second trip after the saw logs, are harvested and organize Spooner clubs. If LaFollette should happen to get left the Jackson Co. man will do a good deal of perspiring to get on the loaded vehicle.

The United States owns half the railroad mileage of the world, and yet there are some timid people, who are afraid of the cars.

The action of Governor La Follette in removing E. B. Hylmstreet to gratify a political whim, is causing special comment. The druggists around the country are handling the erratic governor without gloves or an anesthetic.

Government expenses, have decreased $35,000,000 during the last fiscal year, while receipts have increased about $15,000,000. That's better than borrowing money for running expenses, and still democracy wants a change. Some people don't know when they are well off.

The State of New York has an organization known as the "Society of public accountants." That beats Wisconsin by two points. The Badger State has an inoperative law, for which the Chief Executive is responsible.

Buffalo is to have a down town Union passenger station that will cost $1,000,000. The ground for the site represents twice that amount in value.

Now that the spring election is out of the way, the state campaign will be duly launched. The lines will be closely drawn, and the fence will not be desirable as a loafing place.

A Chicago woman is suing for divorce, because her husband pouts and stays out nights. The man who stays out nights don't usually have much time for pouting.

Oil is the coming fuel for railroads. The Santa Fee system is using it extensively and the Rock Island is experimenting with successful results.

The Pullman Company is still doing business. Twenty seven new coaches are in process of construction for the Pennsylvania Central.

France bought $93,000,000 worth of goods of us last year, and sold the United States only half that amount.

PRESS COMMENT

Matrimonial Mystery.

A Utica couple met for the first time on Tuesday, were married on Wednesday, and the following Monday the woman was awarded a divorce and the custody of the children. Last this item should sound a trifle strange the Washington Post hastens to explain that the woman was a widow.—Council Bluffs Nonpareil.

News comes from Rome to the effect that the pope has been robbed by his own officials of $1,600,000. Well did Christ say: "Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven where neither moth nor rust can consume nor thieves break through and steal." If his holiness cannot trust his own officials, who is he going to rely upon?—Chippewa Falls Catholic Sentinel.

Whiewater Register: The "reform" papers are very unwise to stir up investigation of the governor's attitude toward the taxation question during the last legislative session. Someone may be prompted to tell the whole story and it would make reading which would be apt to surprise and shock the "plain common people."

Eau Claire Leader: The Republican party has passed through one of the bitterest internal contests it has known for years, in the matter of concessions to Cuba. But it will be noticed that it came through all right and still presents a solid front against Democratic interference with the country's prosperity.

Geneva Herald: Any newspaper that is supporting LaFollette is doing so strictly as a matter of principle, while the editor who opposes him is "bought up" with a barrel that the "reform" organs admit is empty! This is a sample or reform consistency.

Beloit Free Press: There is a large amount of kicking in St. Paul over the operation of a primary election law in that city last week. The machine conceived in that law worked to the gang's taste, but very unsatisfactory to all others.

State Journal: It seems that South Carolina spends but $3.25 per pupil a year for education as compared with an average expenditure of $26.49 in Massachusetts. This throws some light on Tillmanism.

The new obituary editor of an exchange thus shows his fitness for the place: "Just about daylight the Pale Horse came for him, with the saddle and bridle of righteousness, and he straddled it and rode home."

Milwaukee Journal: The blizzard last night was probably due to the fact that Mr. McGillivray made two speeches in Jackson county Saturday.

Racine Journal: Now they are clamoring for voting machines in St. Paul in connection with their primary law. They think one machine will fix up the other.

Oshkosh Northwestern: The Connecticut school m'ann, who recently spanked forty-nine pupils in thirty-seven minutes is a reminder of the good old times.

Darlington Republican-Journal: Republicans who do not stand squarely by the protection of American industries are to that extent at variance with their party.

Janesville Business College. We today had calls for two young men on Smith Premier machines.

One to start at $8.00 the other at $12.00, both promising positions. We take the young man at $8.00 per month. So far not a business school in Milwaukee is able to furnish us a young man. At the writing we practically do not have a file application from young men on our files. This should encourage your young men to make use of the shorthand and typewriter as a stepping stone to better position. It is as good as it ever was. Yours truly,

ELECTIONS IN TOWNS WERE VERY QUIET

Not Much Interest Anywhere—Hot Contest for Chief of Police at Evansville.

There was not much interest in the spring elections throughout Rock county and the vote was light. In some towns there was a hot scramble for some of the positions, but on the whole everything was very quiet. At Afton the no-license people made a strong pull and got a good majority. At Evansville there was a red hot fight on for the position of chief of police between Cal Broughton and W. H. Johnson. Five hundred and thirty-seven votes were cast which was more than has ever been cast in that city. Broughton was elected with 265 votes against Johnson's 254. For mayor Wilder was elected with 468 votes, aldermen, George Fuler, 471 votes and J. H. Potter 475 votes. For assessor Homer Potter got 459 votes.

At Edgerton George W. Doty was elected mayor by 50 majority. The old treasurer and also assessor were elected. The aldermen elected were B. M. Ladd, M. E. Nelson, Charles Stricker, Supervisors, E. C. Hopkins, L. E. Gettle and Henry Abbott.

The democrats of the town of Fulton elected M. Conway, chairman of the town board. All the rest elected were republicans.

The town of Porter elected the entire republican ticket. Alex White is chairman of the board.

License was carried in the village of Clinton by 47 majority. B. E. Winegar was elected president by 137 votes against Rev. Wm. Moore with 77. For trustees G. A. Synder, George Reeder and A. B. Peters for 2 years; C. H. Hunt, W. J. McNulty and R. J. Conley for one year. For clerk, F. A. Bird; treasurer, L. Larson; assessor, H. Florida; police justice, H. N. Conkrite, F. A. Ames and A. W. Shattuck. For marshal, George W. Earle.

The republican ticket in the Town of Turtle was elected without any opposition. For supervisors, C. H. Weirick, Chairman, H. B. Walker, Fred Hahn; town clerk, B. H. Sweet; town treasurer, G. L. Zickert; town assessor, W. W. Swingle.

CHARLES CANIFF IN SAN FRANCISCO

Was Taken with a Chronic Disease at Manila and Brought Over for Hospital Treatment.

J. A. Caniff, father of Charles Caniff, who has been in the Philippines for 20 months, is in receipt of a letter from his son written from a hospital at San Francisco, where he has been the past three weeks. He with a number of other soldiers, came across on the transport Sheridan, arriving in port March 13, they left Manila Feb. 14.

He was taken with chronic diarrhoea and is improving fast under the care of the hospital people. He has been promoted twice and held the position of 1st cook in the commissary department when he was taken sick. He hopes to be transferred to some station in the States, although this may not be possible. In case he is refused the transfer it will be necessary for him to return to the Philippines as he has about sixteen months more to complete his enlistment service.

The men who left Janesville with Mr. Caniff, aside from Mr. Putnam, who died recently in the islands, have not been seen by him from the time he went into the service until he started for San Francisco. The other men were assigned to other regiments. Brosman and Schenckhorn were both from Janesville and were stationed in Manila and both enjoyed good health.

Mr. Caniff saw some tough campaigning in the mountains and attributes his sickness to the tough fare the regiment were given together with the severe work. He is improving fast and hopes to be ready for duty in a short time.

CARPENTERS ARE STILL ON STRIKE

Committee Are Engaged to Try and Adjust the Difficulty—Some of the Demands Made.

The situation regarding the carpenters' strike has changed but little. The carpenters' union met this morning and decided to have their committee, consisting of Frank Hall, A. C. Hager and Mark Mathews, meet the committee of contractors and builders, consisting of Wm. Blair, Ed. Donahoe and Ed. Kelly, and talk the matter over. The carpenters are willing to submit the matter to arbitration and are willing to submit to the decision of the arbitration committee.

The carpenters will appoint a man outside the union, have the contractors appoint a man outside their craft and let the two appoint a third. It is not known whether the contractors will agree to any such proposition.

The only contention is over the minimum wage, the carpenters contending for 22 1/2 cents per hour. The contractors want no limit set, as they frequently have work for men who are not skilled carpenters and their work is not worth 22 1/4 cents per hour.

The following is the proposition to which both sides agree except as to the minimum wage:

1. Nine hours to constitute a day's work.

2. A minimum rate of wages of 22 1/2 cents per hour (or $2.02 1/2 per day.)

3. Time and one-half for over time and double time for Sundays and holidays and no work on the Fourth of July or Labor Day at any price.

4. The regulation of the apprenticeship system.

5. The contract to stand until January 1, 1903.

A meeting will be had with the contractors this evening when it is hoped the matter can be amicably settled.

They are preparing for the work of the season which promises to be a busy one and the carpenters can ill afford to lose much time, so it is hoped the contestants may get together.

AFTON REJECTS LIQUOR LICENSES

Twenty-Four Majority Against License at the Election—Result of the Contest Yesterday.

Unusual interest was manifested in the annual spring election yesterday at Afton owing to the fact that the license question was up for settlement for the first time in thirty-three years. Two hundred and fourteen votes were cast, which is largely in excess of the number usually recorded at a town election, where only local issues are at stake. The republicans and democrats were both in the field with complete tickets and candidates on both were successful, nine of the republican nominees being elected and three of the democrats. The party nominations were as follows:

Republican: Chairman, J. B. Humphrey; supervisor, Fred Damrow, G. N. Goldsmith; town clerk, U. G. Waite; treasurer, W. R. Kilmer; assessor, J. A. Gunn; justices, John Kilmer, Marcus Kellogg, Fred Buskirk; constables, F. Holzapfel, John Marsh, James Carroll.

Democrat: Chairman, Fred Rehfeld; supervisors, C. J. Kilmer, James Connell; town clerk, John O'Leary; treasurer, J. L. Sennett; assessor, James Lewis; justices, John Golden, John Kilmer; constables, Owen Gower, T. S. Welch, Charles Schultz, Charles Geeser.

Those who won in Tuesday's contest were the following, together with their majorities: Fred Rehfeld, chairman, 5; C. J. Kilmer, supervisor, 58; G. N. Goldsmith, supervisor, 4; U. G. Waite, town clerk, 8; J. L. Sennett, treasurer, 14; J. A. Gunn, assessor, 22; John Kilmer, justice, was on both tickets; Marcus Kellogg, justice, 7; Fred Buskirk, justice, had no opposition; F. Holzapfel, constable, 5; John Marsh, constable, 5; James Carroll, constable, 4.

By this it will be seen that the republicans elected one supervisor, the town clerk, assessor and all the justices and constables; while the democrats elected the chairman, one supervisor and the treasurer. The vote on the license question resulted in a majority of twenty-four against license, the totals being 112 against and 88 for license.

BILLION DOLLARS FOR IMPROVEMENTS

That Sum, It is Estimated, Will Be Spent in the Leading Cities This Season.

One billion dollars is estimated as the amount which will be spent by the leading cities in this country on important improvements in the course of the year. It is notable among municipal experts that the second year in the new century promises the most lavish expenditures for this purpose ever seen in the United States.

New York City alone is to spend $24,000,000 on general improvements this year. The improvements include pavements, waterworks, sewers, bridges, the subway, boulevards and parks. Changes in the original plans for the Croton dam and the Jerome Park reservoir will alone cost several hundred thousand dollars.

In the cities generally expenditures on pavements and good roads take the lead in the improvements projected, with waterworks, sewer systems and electric lighting plants closely following. Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston, St. Louis and Baltimore are spending amounts proportional to New York's.

Among the smaller cities Pittsburg is to spend the largest amount for bridges. No fewer than six, including foot, railroad and highway bridges will be constructed in the course of the year at an aggregate cost of more than half a million dollars. One of these bridges, the Fern Hollow bridge, will cost $86,000, a large sum for one of a series of bridges to be constructed in a single year by a city of the size of Pittsburg.

Pittsburg has also under way one of the largest water filtration plants in the country in size second of its kind to that now under construction at Philadelphia. That city has a filtration plant and water extension system being developed, the total cost of which will be $20,000,000.

The city of Louisville is spending a great sum on water purification. UNIQUE CLUB BALL WAS A SUCCESS

Assembly Hall Tastefully Decorated for the Event—The Committees in Charge.

One of the most successful and pleasant social events held in this city was the third annual ball given by the Unique club at Assembly hall last evening. About 150 couples participated in the pleasures of the event and all heartily entered into the enthusiastic happiness manifest on all sides.

The committee of arrangements were engaged the greater part of yesterday in decorating the hall. The orchestra stand was moved to the south end of the hall and arches built in front and around it. On the front of the stand the words, "Unique Club" in white on a black ground, greeted the guests as they entered the room. The arches around the stand were entwined with English ivy and the orchestra sat behind a veritable bower of palms, ferns, cacti and flowering plants. To the right of the orchestra a delightful cozy corner had been arranged with willow rockers, divans, center tables, potted plants and rugs beneath a large American flag. To the left of the orchestra Maurice Dalton and other club members served frappe in a booth.

In the north side of the hall where the orchestra stand had been removed a restful retreat had been arranged with potted plants, easy chairs, center tables and rugs. On the wall over these was a large American flag beneath which hung a handsome picture, entitled "Ruth." The central chandelier festooned with evergreens, and each light was shaded with red, producing a delightful effect.

From behind the bower of plants came the enlivening strains of Prof. John Smith's orchestra of eight pieces and they never played better. The scene was one of the purest delight, when the pretty ladies, handsomely attired and with gallant escorts, gayly glided about the hall to the soul inspiring music of the orchestra.

Each member of the club wore a pink carnation and did his best to add to the pleasures of the guests of the club. The third annual dancing party was a success in all that the word implies and reflects great credit upon the promoters. The committees of the club members were as follows:

Arrangements—Ed. Amerpohl, C. Young, Dan Skelly, Ernest Clemens, Floor—Chas. Young, Alfred Jerg, William Houb, Chas. Strickler, Harry Selmedley and W. Bowen.

BURGHERS INSIST ON INDEPENDENCE

Complete Union Said to Exist Among the Leaders on This Point.

EARLY SETTLEMENT UNLIKELY

Acting President Steyn is with General Delarey and a Conference with General Schalk-Burger Will Probably Be Held in the Near Future.

Amsterdam, April 2.—Kruger and the circle surrounding him are not optimistic as to the conclusion of immediate peace. They believe that England is willing to grant full amnesty and to rescind Lord Kitchener's proclamation in regard to the banishment of all Boers who did not surrender on Sept. 15, but that she remains adamant on the question of granting independence to the South African republics. It is claimed that there is complete union among the Boer leaders in the field and the representatives in Holland that the war will continue unless Great Britain agrees to grant independence.

The friends of Kruger say in regard to the visit of Field Marshal Lord Wolseley to South Africa, which it is said in some quarters is for the purpose of conducting peace negotiations, that everything depends on whether he is empowered to negotiate concessions. If not, his mission will be fruitless.

Pretoria, April 2.—Steyn is with Commandant Delarey and a conference with Acting President Schalk-Burger will probably be arranged at once. It is believed that Commander-in-Chief Botha will be present. This means that the commanders will abide by the decision of the Boer "government." Commandant De Villiers in the Kimberley district has sent in a message under a flag of truce asking what terms would be granted for surrender.

De Wet and his 1,300 men are being driven toward the blockhouse line by Colonels Elliott and Rindington. In the west Commandant Delarey is being constantly harassed.

A party of constabulary and native scouts was ambushed near here March 30. Six of the party were killed. The Boers eluded pursuit.

London, April 2.—Orders were issued from the home military headquarters at Aldershot that every available man of the second and third provisional battalions, now being formed there as part of the First Army corps, must embark for South Africa by April 15.

Berlin, April 2.—De Kuyper, the Dutch prime minister, has arrived here. It is not stated whether his visit has any bearing on the present negotiations regarding peace in South Africa.

Heidelberg, April 2.—Commandant Alberts held a meeting of burghers to discuss the question of general surrender. The result has not yet been reported. Commandant Hans Botha is holding a meeting at Amsterdam with the same object.

Unstamped Bonds Invalid. Winamac, Ind., April 2.—It has been discovered that hundreds of bonds in the Starke and Pulaski County Circuit Court have not been stamped according to the regulations of the revenue department and unless so stamped they are invalid.

Six Burned to Death. Johnstown, Pa., April 2.—Philip Mitchell and his five children were burned to death in their home in Prosser Hollow, a secluded settlement about three miles from here. Mrs. Mitchell was carried to a neighbor's house very seriously burned.

Convicted of Cruelty. Lockport, N. Y., April 2.—Annabella Sculafaro was sentenced to sixty days in jail and to pay a fine of $100 by County Judge Hickey, having pleaded guilty to holding his son's hands over blazing paper as a punishment for eating a banana.

Troops Quell Prison Revolt. Berlin, April 2.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Tageblatt says a revolt of the inmates of a prison at Vladikavkaz, capital of the province of Terek, against ill-treatment, was suppressed by armed troops, and many of the prisoners were severely wounded.

Tries to Kill Police Chief. Moscow, April 2.—While M. Irepoff, the chief of police, was receiving visitors a woman, who is said to be a governess, tried to assassinate him. She drew a revolver and attempted to shoot the police chief, but the weapon missed fire.

Ugole Sam's Money. Washington, April 2.—The total government receipts for March were $46,561,583.67; the expenditures, $38,102,427. Of the expenditures the war department used $5,980,856, the navy, $5,908,507 and the pension bureau, $11,873,317.

Defeat Insurance Department. Des Moines, April 2.—In the house the bill to create a department of insurance separate from the office of the auditor of state was defeated after an hour had been spent discussing it. It failed to receive the requisite constitutional majority.

Broker Keene Recovered. Lexington, Ky., April 2.—James R. Keene, the New York millionaire broker and turtin, left his room here Monday for the first time since he arrived.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRES.

Coal Men Out in Michigan. Saginaw, Mich., April 2.—The strike of the Michigan coal miners, ordered several days ago after the conference between the operators and miners failed to agree on a scale, began, and 1,100 miners are out in this county. Almost the same number of men have quit the mines at Bay City and in the St. Charles district.

Plains Gossip in Murder. Vienna, Ill., April 2.—John Adams, before Judge Vickers, pleaded guilty to killing Frank Rushing and was sentenced to the penitentiary for thirty years at hard labor. He shot Rushing three times about ten days ago. The murder grew out of Adams' jealousy over a girl. He threw himself on the mercy of the court.

Rev. Heiler Newton to Resign. New York, April 2.—The Rev. Dr. R. Heiler Newton, rector of All Souls' Protestant Episcopal church for thirty years, is to resign, it is announced, to become special preacher to the students of the Leland Stanford University of California.

Poisoned by Cream Puffs. Cincinnati, April 2.—Numerous bakeries have ceased manufacturing cream puffs and chocolate eclairs as the result of the wholesale ptomaine poisoning of fourteen persons who were made dangerously ill by eating them.

Dedicate Swiss Buildings. Berne, Switzerland, April 2.—The handsome new parliament buildings, constructed at a cost of $8,000,000 francs, were opened with considerable ceremony by the federal council and federal assembly. Addresses were made by President Zemp and others.

Wisconsin Law Declared Invalid. Madison, Wis., April 2.—The law passed by the last legislature imposing a tax of 10 cents a ton on ice shipped out of the state was declared invalid in a decision handed down by the supreme court.

is due to the retention in the system of Uric Acid or other inflammatory poisons which find their way into the blood, and are forced by the circulation through the glands and pores of the skin, causing it to burn like fire, and the incessant itching allows no rest night or day. Eczema appears in a great many different forms, beginning frequently as a mere redness of the skin, followed by little blisters or pimples, from which a clear or straw colored matter oozes, forming into sores, scales or scabs; this is weeping Eczema, commonly called Salt Rheum. These acid poisons sometimes dry up the natural oils and the skin becomes hard and dry, often cracking and bleeding and causing intense pain and fearful itching. This form of Eczema is known as Tetter, and oftenest attacks the hands and feet. Unsightly eruptions in the shape of pimples and blackheads break out upon the face, neck and shoulders as a result of polluted blood, and this humiliating disease is called Acne. Local remedies afford but scant relief. The blood and system being saturated with the poison, the disease cannot be reached with washes, salves, powders or other local applications. S. S. S. restores the deteriorated blood to its normal condition, stimulates the sluggish organs, and all the waste matter is eliminated through the proper channels. S. S. S. makes the blood rich and strong, and under its tonic and invigorating effects the general health improves, and the skin becomes soft and smooth again.

S. S. S. contains no minerals but is guaranteed purely vegetable. Write us if you need medical advice; this will cost you nothing. Illustrated book on skin diseases sent free.

A Strong Woman

Iowa City, Iowa, Aug. 15, 1900
My wife was sick for three years. We tried everything without relief and spent much money. My wife tried Wine of Cardui and four bottles cured her. She took two more bottles, knowing she would have to work hard during the hay harvest. She attended to all her household duties and loaded and unloaded all the hay. This medicine gave her strength. Formerly she was weak and tired and could hardly get about, but since she has been taking Wine of Cardui she feels better and stronger than when 20 years of age. JOS. A. EISENHAFER.

Mrs. Eisenhafer had tried everything during her three years sickness and had spent considerable money. She was weak and could hardly get about for three years before she took

WINE OF CARDUI

Now, after taking the Wine of Cardui, she can work with her husband in the hay field. That is hard work, but it is not as injurious to a woman's health as labor in stores, factories and offices where thousands of girls are closely confined year after year. With the aid of Wine of Cardui a woman can do any reasonable work and enjoy good health. The health that Wine of Cardui brings makes a woman vigorous in body and mind. Freed from those terrible devastating pains a woman grows well and strong naturally. Wine of Cardui regulates the disordered menstruation and cures leucorrhoea, falling of the womb and periodical pains in the head and back caused by standing or sitting a long time in the same position. Theford's Black-Draught puts the bowels, stomach, liver, kidneys and blood in proper shape. Greatly increased strength and endurance is the natural result. Most cases are cured quickly. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui and 25 cent packages of Theford's Black-Draught.

For advice and literature, address, giving symptoms, "The Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Company, Chattanooga, Tenn.
